Filing Basics:

- For the assessment date of January 1, 2020, IC 6-1.1-3-7.2 was amended to allow an exemption for taxpayers with less than $40,000 in acquisition costs to be reported within a county. Failure to timely file a personal property tax return with the applicable assessor declaring the exemption will result in a $25 penalty. (IC 6-1.1-37-7) For more information, refer to this link: <http://www.in.gov/dlgf/7576.htm>.
- To locate contact information for the various county offices (Assessor, Auditor, and Treasurer), locate forms, and learn more about Indiana's personal property tax system, go to www.in.gov/dlgf. Contact information for the Assessor is available at <http://www.in.gov/dlgf/2440.htm>.
- Taxpayers may request up to a thirty (30) day extension of time to file their return. The written request should be sent to the Assessor before the filing deadline of May 15, 2020, and should include a reason for the request. The Assessor may, at their discretion, approve or disapprove the request in writing.
- Personal property must be assessed in each taxing district where property has a tax situs.
- Inventory located in the State of Indiana is exempt and is not required to be reported per IC 6-1.1-1-11(b)(3).
- It is the responsibility of the taxpayer to obtain forms from the Assessor and file a timely return. The forms are also available on-line at the department's website, www.in.gov/dlgf.
- Taxpayers may consider the ease of filing this short form versus the possible tax savings by filing Form 103-Long before choosing the form they wish to file.
- If you hold, possess, or control not-owned personal property on the assessment date, you have a liability for the taxes imposed for that year unless you establish that the property is to be assessed to the owner. This is done by completing a Form 103-N, attaching it to the Form 103-Short, and filing it with the Assessor. A taxpayer declaring the exemption on page one of this form may, as deemed necessary by the applicable assessor, need to file Form 103-O or 103-N, as applicable, to verify that he is the appropriate taxpayer to claim the exemption.
NOTE: Failure to properly disclose lease information may result in a double assessment. (IC 6-1.1-2-4(a))
- Taxpayers who discover an error was made on their original timely filed personal property tax return have the right to file an amended return. The amended return must be filed within twelve (12) months of the due date or the extended due date (if up to a thirty (30) day extension was granted) of their original return.

SECTION VI

NOTE: This form is for the reporting of two or less Operating Leases. For all other leases, the Form 103-N (for the lessee) and the Form 103-O (for the lessor) should be utilized. For more information on the reporting of leased equipment, refer to 50 IAC 4.2-8. Failure to properly disclose lease information may result in a double assessment.
